

"Iris Chang, a second-generation Chinese American historian and bestselling author of The Rape of Nanking, makes a convincing case in her engrossing new book, The Chinese in America, that throughout the 150 years of Chinese immigration to the United States, the full acceptance of Chinese Americans by the larger culture has been fleeting and illusory...the best antidote to such ignorance is reading Chang's absorbing, passionate story of the Chinese American experience."
— San Francisco Chronicle.

Please honor us with your presence at the Mission College
"Night of Literary Feast"

Friday, April 30, 2004

$100.00 donation per person

5:30–7:00 pm:
Hospitality Program Dining Room

Mission College Asian American Literary Donors'
Asian Fusion Gourmet Dinner and Celebration

Complimentary — Open to the public

7:00 – 8:30 pm:
Mission College Library

A special book signing and presentation by
Iris Chang, author of *Chinese in America:
A narrative history*

The dedication of the Asian American
Collection, founded by the Robert N.
Chang Charitable Foundation.

Entertainment and light refreshments.

RSVP for either event by Monday,
April 26, 2004, by calling (408) 741-2164

3000 Mission College Blvd.
Santa Clara CA 94087-2446
408-988-2200
www.missioncollege.org