

ESL GRAMMAR AND EDITING

esl.missioncollege.edu

Department Chair: Amelia Akers-Martin
 408-855-5092 | SEC-248H
 amelia.akers-martin@missioncollege.edu
 Dean: TBA

ESL Grammar and Editing: Certificate of Competency (CC) (Noncredit)

The English as a Second Language Grammar & Editing Program equips students with grammar, writing and editing skills for success at the high intermediate to advanced levels of the college's credit ESL program and other educational pathways. Program Learning Outcomes: Demonstrate grammar, writing and editing skills necessary for success in the 960-970 level credit ESL program. Career/Transfer Opportunities: With the ability to speak and write English at the high-intermediate to advanced levels, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Program Learning Outcome:

- Demonstrate grammar, writing and editing skills necessary for success in the 960-970 level credit ESL program.

Career/Transfer Opportunities:

With the ability to speak and write English at the high-intermediate to advanced levels, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Core Requirements:

Complete all of the following

	Required Hours
NCE 945GE Intermediate Grammar and Editing	36
NCE 965GE Advanced Grammar and Editing	36

Total Required Hours:

72 hours

*Federal Financial aid may not apply to this certificate program. Consult financial aid office for more information.

