

INTERMEDIATE ESL

esl.missioncollege.edu

Department Chair: Amelia Akers-Martin
408-855-5092 | SEC-248H
amelia.akers-martin@missioncollege.edu
Dean: TBA

Intermediate ESL: Certificate of Competency (CC) (Noncredit)

The Intermediate English as a Second Language Program equips students with listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills needed for success at the high intermediate level of the college's ESL program.

Program Learning Outcome: Demonstrate the listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills necessary for success in the 960-level ESL program. Career/Transfer Opportunities: With the ability to speak and write English at the intermediate level, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Program Learning Outcome:

- Demonstrate the listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills necessary for success in the 960-level ESL program.

Career/Transfer Opportunities:

With the ability to speak and write English at the intermediate level, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Core Requirements:

Complete all of the following

	Required Hours
NCE 950LS Intermediate Listening and Speaking	54.0
NCE 950RW Intermediate Reading and Writing	108.0

Total Required Hours

162hours

*Federal Financial aid may not apply to this certificate program. Consult financial aid office for more information.

HIGH-INTERMEDIATE ESL

esl.missioncollege.edu

Department Chair: Amelia Akers-Martin
408-855-5092 | SEC-248H
amelia.akers-martin@missioncollege.edu
Dean: TBA

Intermediate ESL: Certificate of Competency (CC) (Noncredit)

The High Intermediate English as a Second Language Program equips students with listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills for success in the advanced level of the college's ESL program. Program Learning Outcome: Demonstrate the listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills necessary for success in the 970-level ESL program. Career/Transfer Opportunities: With the ability to speak and write English at the high intermediate level, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Program Learning Outcome:

- Demonstrate the listening, speaking, reading, writing, and grammar skills necessary for success in the 970-level ESL program.

Career/Transfer Opportunities:

With the ability to speak and write English at the high intermediate level, students can improve their employability, enter the Mission College credit ESL courses, and explore pathways to higher education.

Core Requirements:

Complete all of the following

	Required Hours
NCE 960LS High Intermediate Listening and Speaking	54.0
NCE 950RW High Intermediate Reading and Writing	108.0

Total Required Hours:

162 hours

*Federal Financial aid may not apply to this certificate program. Consult financial aid office for more information.